

WHERE DO WE PERFORM?

In over 20 shows a year, we visit:

- retirement homes
- community outreach groups
- volunteer celebrations
- service clubs
- schools.

We entertain at:

- cabarets
- church groups
- Christmas concerts.

We do education sessions with:

- university Social Work classes
- geriatric caregivers
- associations.

Our message comes through our tactful handling of serious issues involving our aging population.

We can present an entertainment package or conduct workshops using improv as a tool for expression.

SAGE AGE THEATRE

Not Just For Seniors

Funny . . .

Clever . . .

Entertaining!

INTRODUCING OUR TROUPE

"Funny . . . thought-provoking – they made the audience laugh, cry, and think about what it means to be a senior citizen."

Sage Age Theatre comprises improv enthusiasts from Lanark County, Ontario. Founded in 1992 as a creative outlet for expression, our group continues to present timely topics with universal appeal. Our members range in age from sixties up, some with stage experience, some not, but all with the desire to hone their acting skills to deliver a positive image of the golden years.

OUR SHOW

No scripts, no fixed roles, just spontaneity, verve, and energy. No props or sets, just seniors being themselves. The shows vary depending on the audience, from strictly entertainment to serious education, but all deliver a message that seniors are not to be taken lightly!

Our lively hour-long show of short skits and occasional songs is based on our own life experiences or on audience suggestions. Although we rehearse the situations, everything is unscripted leading to surprises with every performance. Each show is tailored to the particular audience, making it informative and fun for all.

No situation is too delicate to handle from grandchildren or grieving to internet dating and driving. If you are a senior, will be a senior, or know a senior, you are sure to enjoy our show!
